TRYING TO QUIT SMOKING?

VAPE

SMART has opened in Market Place to help you do so. Swap cigarettes for flavoured vapour.

Using a vapouriser is a great way to get nicotine without the additional chemicals found in cigarettes. They match your current nicotine intake then reduce the level down over time.

You can still smoke. You are swapping, not stopping. Your hands and mouth are kept occupied while you take in the taste of vapour.

If you want to know more, why not drop in to the shop and find out.

CHALFONT COMMON W.I. ATTIC SALE SATURDAY 12th MARCH 2016 9.30 till 12.00s in the Chalfont St Peter Community Centre. TO BOOK A TABLE £12.50

Chiltern District Council's new local plan for 2015 - 2036. Substantial green belt sites earmarked for potential development throughout our village.

With Chiltern District Council's Local Plan (up to 2026) having been failed by the government inspector, the District Council will be deciding on a new local plan (up to 2036). This now has to include a larger development quota, so our precious green belt is fair game as far as the government is concerned.

The impact on Chalfont St Peter could be devastating - the sites that have been put forward for discussion by CDC equate to over 50% of the built area of our village. These include

1. The whole of the Epilepsy Society site (including open farmland), Rowans Nursery and Shire Horse Centre land
2. The area to the north of Chalfont Heights between Winkers Nightclub & Paccar Scout camp
3. Mill Meadow (the area surrounding the community centre and the playing fields used by the CSP CofE Academy)
- 4 The long stretch of land straddling the Misbourne Valley from Chalfont Heights to where the railway line crosses the A413 (this area for employment use not housing).

None of us want the entirety of these sites to become housing, yet simply saying NO is not an option. However large parts of these sites (and in some cases the entire site) clearly should not have been put forward for residential development in any event.

Our village must decide if it wants and where it wants development to go as well as what type of development it wants. We need proper consideration of the issues across the entire district as well as in CSP. SENSE does not expect the apportionment across the district to be balanced or fair, but we must all do our best to protect the green belt as much as is possible and lessen the impact of essential development.

The public consultation commences on 18th January and runs through until 5pm on 11th March when all representations must be logged with CDC.

Sense4CSP will publish its own thoughts in due course and consult CSP residents at a public open meeting to be announced shortly.

THE SAFER BUCKS PLAN is Buckinghamshire's response to the statutory duty in two-tier areas to produce a /Community Safety Agreement/. This should identify what our priorities are and how we will work (with our partners) to address them. In Bucks, we also include reference to local, district priorities as many will complement each other.

This document must be /evidence based/. We look at a minimum of one year of crime and disorder data and information and look at trends, emerging areas, changing nature of crime etc. This evidence base is called the /Partnership Strategic Assessment/ and is carefully written over approx. 3 months, culminating in a detailed analysis document looking at victims, offenders and locations of crime.

From this work, the county Safer Communities team has identified four priority areas for 2016/17.

The priorities to be included in the Safer Bucks Plan should:

1. be based on evidence
2. recognise the current and emerging countywide needs and issues
3. take into consideration equality and ethics
4. be within the scope and capabilities of the Community Safety team, alongside its crime and disorder partners

We are now starting to consult with key stakeholders about these proposed priorities. This includes discussions with those who live and work in Buckinghamshire.

Obtaining views and feedback is crucial to this process and, to that end, please use this link below to answer a very short online survey about the proposed crime and disorder priorities for this year. The survey will close on 17th January. Information received from the survey will be analysed and summarised before making final decisions on the priorities at the end of January.

The survey can be found here: <https://www.research.net/r/saferbucksplan1617>

MISSENDEN ABBEY has two short courses coming soon and it may be worthwhile coming along to an afternoon of interesting history on the 30th January and a course on the way graphology works in revealing what makes people tick and how to make the most of their gifts and personalities, on 14th May. 30 Jan 2016 Villains in History through their Handwriting

Venue: Missenden Abbey, Great Missenden, Bucks HP16 0BD

Tutor: Elaine Quigley

Fees: Course only: £35

Dates: 30th January 2016

Course times: 14.00pm to 5.00pm

We will find out how to understand what others are really like in their thinking and responding. Handwriting is 'brainwriting' and therefore is very revealing when the personality of the writer is explored. Of course many traits are combined within the personality and all of us have good and bad within, often influenced by our past experiences as well as our genetic make-up.

Though students are going to explore villains and their motivation, they will also look at the contrast in the writing of those who are decent and fair. It should be a revealing course that can be followed up by a course to delve deeper into this fascinating subject.

You may wish to attend further courses on graphology at Missenden Abbey

14 May 2016 Graphology: Explore the Personality through Handwriting X18GI03N15

Venue: Missenden Abbey, Great Missenden, Bucks

Tutor: Elaine Quigley

Fees: Course only: £35

Dates: 14th May 2016

Course times: 2.00 - 5.00pm

The course aims to take students along the path of understanding what makes people who they are, and how to make the most out of interaction and relationships.

Graphology is a comprehensive way of looking at many aspects of personality and learning how to select from these the knowledge that provides the most appropriate information on what the handwriting discloses.

The course will take understanding people to a new dimension. Students are invited to bring handwriting samples to share and there will also be many interesting samples provided by the tutor.

Once involved in the study of graphology, it is difficult not to keep going, as each piece of handwriting throws up the challenge to know more.

Additional costs, optional. The course textbook £5.00 from the tutor. The institute runs a bookshop and books from it will be for sale if wanted.

Tutor profile:

Elaine Quigley is a Psychologist and Graphologist, a past chairman of the British Institute of Graphologists and an experienced lecturer in Adult Education.

She has appeared on television and radio presenting the way graphology can be useful, as well as fascinating.
